Richard G. French joins the Entrex Oil and Gas Market Team

Boca Raton, FL. February 10, 2021: Entrex (OTC: UNSS) (<https://Entrex.Market>) is pleased to announce that Richard G. French has joined The Entrex Oil and Gas Market (<https://oilandgas.entrex.market/>) to lead business development initiatives.

“We are fortunate to have Rich join the enterprise from his role scaling global brands” said Stephen H. Watkins. “Creativity is key as we forge new ways for entrepreneurial companies to access capital. I believe Rich can find, create and execute new business opportunities while managing and executing on existing tasks at hand”.

Rich French comments “Entrex has developed and maintains regulatory compliant markets which need to scale on both the origination and placement side of the market. As we’ve seen in recent market volatility investors have new attitude about the incumbent capital market machine. We need to build unique solutions, with national and global partners, which serve both our companies and investors. Together we’ll continue Entrex’s role leading capital access for the masses of entrepreneurial businesses.”

“If there is ever a time the United States needs to support capital access for the employment sector of the economy – this is it. Rich’s creativity brings a unique perspective which should allow us to build and lead the capital access challenges of our entrepreneurial companies. Let’s help the companies - and help investors access the growth sector of our economy which has been devastated by this pandemic” said Tom Harblin, partner in the Entrex Oil and Gas Market.

Paul D. Landrew, Chairman of UNSS said; “As we get some of the compliance mechanics of our company behind us Watkins has been tasked to focus on the people, strategy, execution and cash to scale Entrex and the various markets into the dominant leadership position. Having Rich join the team brings the leader we need into the business development role”.
